

Academic Technology and the Endicott Center for Teaching and Learning present

The AI in Education Institute

June 2, 2026

8:30 AM - 3:00 PM

Join Endicott faculty to share different ways that AI is being used in education by teachers.

8:30 - 9:00 AM

Fruit, Muffins, Coffee, and Tea

Grab a cup of coffee or tea and say hello to colleagues before joining the 9:00 Session. Write your questions about teaching with AI you want to talk about throughout the day.

Location: Halle Library First Floor hallway near Global Education

9:00 - 10:00 AM

Inspiring Human-Centered Teaching and Learning with AI

The heart of education is still human connection. In this high-energy interactive session, we will treat generative AI as a raw ingredient to be blended with your unique teaching "vibe." Move through a series of speed-discussions to reflect on and find inspiration for human-centered pedagogical practices that are amplified by AI.

Presenters: Jen Classen & Hedrick Ellis

Location: Library 122

10:05 - 11:00 AM

Developing Shared Agreements of AI Use with Students at Endicott

From the classroom to the human resources office, AI is the new landscape. This session simulates a protocol for co-constructing classroom agreements for using generative AI in your undergraduate and graduate courses. Inspired by the new guidelines for using AI with grading and feedback, we'll model this process through a discussion of practices for grading, feedback, and professional workflows, creating a shared set of practices that empowers faculty and provides clarity.

Presenter: Jenne Flewelling

Location: Library 122

11:05 - 12:00 PM	AI Show & Tell: Faculty Demos of AI Use Cases Demonstrations of NotebookLM for reverse outlines and as an AI-durable design partner Gem, Gemini for creating simulations and case studies, NotebookLM for creating slides from academic articles, Turnitin Clarity for AI use transparency. Presenters: Anna Linnehan, Sam Alexander, Jim Lacey, Jenne Flewelling Location: Library 105 Zoom: Provided to participants
12:00 PM - 1 PM Lunch	Unconference Lunch in the Library (near the books) Sandwiches and salads will be provided and available in the center of the Library. Engage in conversation topics based on your questions from the morning.
1 PM - 2:00 PM	New AI Tools for Google Workspace and Canvas Google and Instructure have been releasing a variety of AI functionality that can be embedded in Workspace and Canvas. This session will demonstrate these AI tools and show they can be used to assist you with various tasks. Presenter: James Faulkner - Instructional Technologist & AI Innovation Specialist Location: Library 122 Zoom: Provided to participants
2:05 PM - 3:00 PM	Guided Make & Take: Hands-on with AI Tools This session will give you a chance for some hands-on time with the various AI tools that have been demonstrated throughout the day. Get a head start on creating resources for your Fall classes. AT & ECTL staff will be available to provide guidance and support as you create. Location: Library 122